

MESSAGE FROM THE PUBLISHER

NEW EDITOR OF THE RECORD

Fraser & Beatty Legal Publications Inc. is pleased to announce that Randal T. Hughes has been named Editor of the Canadian Competition Record (the Record). He succeeds Sandra J. Simpson, who was this summer appointed a Justice of the Federal Court of Canada and a judicial member of the Competition Tribunal.

Mr. Hughes will be the fourth Editor of the Record since its founding in 1980. William Morrow was the founding Editor, who turned over the position to Lawson Hunter upon the former's retirement in 1986. Mr. Hunter served as Editor until December 1992, following which Sandra Simpson assumed the post. We wish Madam Justice Simpson well with her new appointment.

The new Editor is a partner at Fraser & Beatty, where he is head of the competition law practice group. Mr. Hughes has handled the competition law aspects of numerous mergers, and represented clients before the courts in criminal proceedings under the Competition Act and before the Competition Tribunal in respect of reviewable matters. Mr. Hughes was called to the Bar in 1982. He holds a B.Comm. and an LL.B. from the University of Toronto.

Paul Lepsoe of Fraser & Beatty remains Associate Editor. David Little, also of Fraser & Beatty, continues as Assistant Editor.
